

ESHATUL ISLAM

BRIEF HISTORY

Established in 1983 as a Masjid and an evening Madrasah, Eshatul Islam soon realised the need for a full time educational centre which will incorporate the national curriculum and succeeded in setting up the London Islamic School after purchasing the existing building in 1995.

PRESENT ON GOING PROJECT AND ACTIVITIES

We are an Islamic school incorporating full time education with the National Curriculum in our syllabuses. Additionally we have various adult classes for the local community.

FUTURE PLAN

To make London Islamic School one of the best performing schools in London we need a total of nearly £250,000.

We are looking to build the following in the future:

- A Funeral service
- A fully dedicated Madrasah in the empty land behind the current building and women’s facilities.

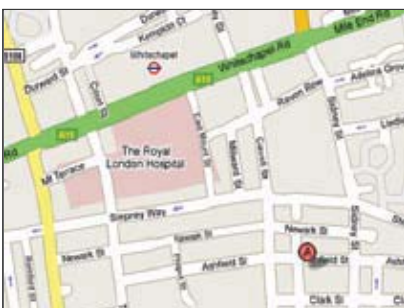

FUNDS NEEDED

In the immediate future, we need to carry out urgent renovation work to extend the London Islamic School.

Re-building the 2nd floor which will include:

- 3 classrooms
- Canteen
- A Science lab
- Waiting room
- Wudhu Khana for sisters
- Common room

Total amount needed - £150,000
