

LUTON ISLAMIC COMMUNITY FORUM

BRIEF HISTORY

With the help of the Muslim community in Luton and beyond, Legrave Jame Masjid (formerly a Doctor's Surgery) was acquired on 20 March 2008.

PRESENT ON GOING PROJECT AND ACTIVITIES

The purpose of this Mosque is to provide a place of worship to the muslims of Legrave and Hockwell Ring area as well as to all Muslims generally.

First phase of the Masjid building work has commenced to expand the current capacity.

Education (not just Arabic) for children and adults (both brothers and sisters).

Community Youth project.

Prayer facilities for sisters.

FUTURE PLAN

Our long-term ambition is to make the Legrave Jame Masjid, the hub of the community by providing the services the community as a whole needs

FUNDS NEEDED

We are a new Masjid and desperately in need of funds to complete the first phase of the building work which will cost £100,000. We also need to repay £150,000 of Qarda Hasanah by the end of this year.
